Abstracts

The global Real and Compound Chocolate market was valued at 6286.05 Million USD in 2021 and will grow with a CAGR of 1.17% from 2021 to 2027, based on HNY Research newly published report.

The prime objective of this report is to provide the insights on the post COVID-19 impact which will help market players in this field evaluate their business approaches. Also, this report covers market segmentation by major market vendors, types, applications/end users and geography(North America, East Asia, Europe, South Asia, Southeast Asia, Middle East, Africa, Oceania, South America).

Premium chocolates and other innovative chocolate products involve a combination of high-quality chocolate and healthy ingredients. Premium chocolate snacks are easily accessible at many convenience stores, as well as some international supermarkets. Such healthy trends and innovative chocolate products will drive the real chocolate market at a global level. Europe is projected to retain its dominance throughout the forecast period owing to healthy economic growth and increasing consumption of real & compound chocolate in various food products. However, Asia pacific region including countries China, Japan, India, Australia & New Zealand, and Rest of APAC is the fastest growing region in consumption of real & compound chocolate and is projected to expand at a CAGR 2.6% & 3.5% respectively, during the forecast period 2017-2023. The growing CAGR can be attributed to increase in the demand for confectionery and chocolate as an additive in food products.
