Q1 2017, Pages: 2020, Tables & Figures: 650. Homeland Security Market 6-Volume Mega Report. Granulated by 372 Submarkets. Global Homeland Security & Public Safety Market [$B] – 2015-2021 15 years have passed since 9/11, and the global Homeland Security & Public Safety technologies and markets are forecasted to go through major shifts. Counter Terror and security markets formerly dominated by the U.S. are now moving to Europe and Asia-Pacific. New and maturing counter terror technologies, such as big data & data analysis, advanced sensors, big data-based cybersecurity, video analytics and TETRA & LTE emergency communication, will create new market segments and fresh business opportunities. According to the “Global Homeland Security & Public Safety Industry, Technologies & Markets – 2017-2022” report, the market will go through a growth period, sustaining a 2016-2020 CAGR of 5.7%. This growth is driven by the following dynamics: The European terror and migration crisis, the turmoil in the Arab world, the ongoing conflicts in Iraq, Syria and Yemen, and the Shia-Sunni conflict. President Donald Trump promised, throughout his campaign, a tough fight against Islamist extremism, terror at home and abroad, and to invest in physical security and counter terror. Climate warming-related natural disasters, growth in organized crime, the “We Will Invest Whatever It Takes” approach of autocratic governments (e.g., China and Saudi Arabia) to avoid regime change, cybercrime and cyberterrorism threats. This 6-volume 2020-page HLS market report is the only comprehensive review of the global physical security market available today. The objective of this counter terror market forecast is to provide a detailed, time-sensitive and reasoned intelligence analysis. This Homeland Security Market report is a resource for executives with interests in the physical security market.
