Abstracts

This study covers the latent demand outlook for upholstered wood household davenports, sofas, loveseats, and settees excluding chairs sold as part of suites, sectional sofa pieces, and custom pieces sold directly to the customer at retail across the states and zip codes of the United States. Latent demand (in millions of U.S. dollars), or potential industry earnings (P.I.E.) estimates are given across some 10,833 zip codes in the United States. For each zip code in question, the percent share the zip code is of its state and of the United States as a whole is reported. These comparative benchmarks allow the reader to quickly gauge a zip code vis-à-vis others. This statistical approach can prove very useful to distribution and/or sales force strategies. Using econometric models which project fundamental economic dynamics within each state and zip code, latent demand estimates are created for upholstered wood household davenports, sofas, loveseats, and settees excluding chairs sold as part of suites, sectional sofa pieces, and custom pieces sold directly to the customer at retail. This report does not discuss the specific players in the market serving the latent demand, nor specific details at the product level. The study also does not consider short-term cyclicalities that might affect realized sales. The study, therefore, is strategic in nature, taking an aggregate and long-run view, irrespective of the players or products involved.

This study covers upholstered wood household davenports, sofas, loveseats, and settees excluding chairs sold as part of suites, sectional sofa pieces, and custom pieces sold directly to the customer at retail as defined by the North American Industrial Classification system or NAICS (pronounced "nakes").

The NAICS code for upholstered wood household davenports, sofas, loveseats, and settees excluding chairs sold as part of suites, sectional sofa pieces, and custom pieces sold directly to the customer at retail is 33712111. It is for this definition that aggregate latent demand estimates are derived. Upholstered wood household davenports, sofas, loveseats, and settees excluding chairs sold as part of suites, sectional sofa pieces, and custom pieces sold directly to the customer at retail is specifically defined as follows:

33712111 Upholstered wood household davenports, sofas, loveseats, and settees (except custom sold directly to the customer at retail), excluding chairs sold as part of suites and sectional sofa pieces
