Abstracts

The global organic snacks market size reached US$ 12.2 Billion in 2023. Looking forward, IMARC Group expects the market to reach US$ 26.9 Billion by 2032, exhibiting a growth rate (CAGR) of 9% during 2024-2032.

Organic snacks refer to food products that are produced organically using certified organic ingredients, while eliminating the employment of synthetic substances, such as artificial colors, fertilizers, pesticides, and genetically modified organisms (GMOs). Salty snacks, candy bars, nutrition bars, nuts, and other bakery products, such as pancakes, bagels, pretzels, and cookies, are some of the commonly available organic snacks. They are rich in protein, vitamins, antioxidants, and minerals, which in boosting the immune system, enhancing heart condition, increasing nutrient intake, and sustaining energy levels. As compared to traditional snacks, organic snacks are natural, healthier, and are grown through organic farming that supports environmental protection.

Organic Snacks Market Trends:

The rising consumer preference for organic snacks across the globe is one of the key factors driving the growth of the market. With the busy lifestyle and hectic schedule, consumers are increasingly opting for nutrients rich and naturally sourced snacks, which, in turn, is supporting the market growth. In line with this, the rising health consciousness and awareness of consumers towards nutrient content and quality of organic food are favoring the market growth. Moreover, various product innovations, such as the introduction of customized solutions and peel open packaging that is convenient to carry while travelling, is providing an impetus to the market growth. Additionally, the introduction of vegan and gluten-free organic snacks catering to lactose-intolerant consumers, while being rich in nutrients and low on cholesterol levels, are positively impacting the market growth. Apart from this, increasing expenditure capacities of consumers, convenient product availability through e-commerce platforms and a surge in the willingness of consumers on buying environmentally friendly products are creating a positive outlook for the market.
