Abstracts

The Saudi Arabia cat food market reached a value of US$ 31.8 Million in 2021. Looking forward, IMARC Group expects the market to reach US$ 50.9 Million by 2027, exhibiting a CAGR of 8.1% during 2022-2027. Keeping in mind the uncertainties of COVID-19, we are continuously tracking and evaluating the direct as well as the indirect influence of the pandemic. These insights are included in the report as a major market contributor.

Cat food is made of plant or animal materials which are intended for the consumption of domesticated cats. It is a good source of proteins, carbohydrates, fats and several other nutrients, such as vitamins, minerals and amino acids. Cats are one of the most preferred pets in Saudi Arabia since they are considered sacred, cleaner, cheaper to buy and maintain and are well suited to the regional climate. As a result, Saudi Arabia cat food market has experienced a sustained growth over the years.

Due to the rising awareness among the pet owners regarding the benefits offered by cat food, such as combating skin allergies and infections and providing essential proteins and nutrients to maintain the weight and energy level of the cats, the demand for cat food has witnessed a positive thrust. Further, the shift towards premium cat food products with enhanced nutritional value is boosting the market growth. Moreover, the expansion of the organised retail sector in the region is fostering the growth of the Saudi Arabia cat food market as these channels enable the consumers to choose between different cat food brands and products at one place.
