Abstracts

Executive summary

IRB Infrastructure Developers Ltd. is one of the leading Infrastructure developments company in India in road and highway sector. It has superior project execution and management skills in the road BOT (Build-Operate-Transfer) space and has executed some of the large and complex BOT projects in the country on or before time.

IRB is well poised to take advantage of huge opportunities that the road sector will throw in coming months. However, there is a concern on intense competition and high interest rates, which may limit order wins or may result in orders wins with aggressive bids.
