Abstracts

Textile Industry contributes 14% to Indian industrial production, 4% to the GDP and around 17% to the total export earnings and is the largest foreign exchange earning sector in the country. Textile Industry has evolved from being a domestic small-scale industry, to the status of supremacy it currently holds. The industry, today, provides direct employment to over 35 million people and is the second largest provider of employment after agriculture. It not only generates jobs in its own industry, but also opens up scopes for the other ancillary sectors.
