Abstracts

The Asia Pacific Sugar Substitutes Market would witness market growth of 5.6% CAGR during the forecast period (2017 – 2023). Asia Pacific is a region with tremendous market potential for sugar substitute manufacturing, due to better living standards among the middle-class population, and better spending power among consumers. Additionally, growing concerns about health among the health-conscious people would be a major factor that would propel market growth. China is the major market for sugar substitutes in the Asia Pacific region. Large manufacturers' base and ageing population in the country would further propel the demand for sugar substitute products in the country.
