Abstracts

The Latin America, Middle East and Africa Marketing Automation Market would witness market growth of 16.9% CAGR during the forecast period (2019-2025). Using a marketing automation platform, sales and marketing companies are streamlined through the replacement of highly touching repetitive manual procedures with automated solutions. Marketing automation is a platform for the planning, coordination, management and measurement of all marketing initiatives by marketers online and offline. It is often used in conjunction with the lifecycle marketing strategy to handle and nurture leads in a close manner that aims to turn leads into clients.

Customer relationship management (CRM) or Customer Experience management (CXM) is a marketing automation subgroup that focuses on identification, segmentation, scheduling, and track marketing activities. The application of marketing technology allows processes much more effective and possible new procedures that would otherwise have been conducted manually. Marketing Automation can be described as a method in which technology is employed to automate a number of repeated functions regularly performed in marketing campaigns. A marketing automation platform can be called a tool that enables a person to devise, implement and automate a time-based marketing workflow.
