Abstracts

The Latin America, Middle East and Africa Dental Practice Management Software Market would witness market growth of 12.2% CAGR during the forecast period (2019-2025).

Usually, the responsibilities of dental practice managers include the design and implementation of an agreed administration. The DPM can help implement and provide all dental services and achieve a maximum contribution to the productivity of the company by helping in the implementation of patient care procedures. The manager may need to create a business plan and also prepare reports for external companies, plan accounts for the end of the year, and ensure an effective banking system. The DPM has to run monthly reports on things like bad debts, failed and cancelled appointments, stock flow and petty cash using the agreed administration system.

Managers of dental practices need to manage teams. In accordance with an in-house practice policy, the DPM will need to recruit, train, motivate and discipline the workforce. Employee contracts, job descriptions, and responsibilities have to be composed. Organizational skills must be of a very high standard for activities such as staff holidays, sickness, time-keeping and team meetings structure. The DPM will assist with the principal in the development of an assessment system.

Consultation advises and guidance must also be provided, following advice from the dentist on available private treatments. The Web-based software market segment has been projected to hold a significant market share in 2018. This is due to the increased versatility and convenience provided by such solutions, contributing to the effective management of clinical data and lower costs. In addition, the web-based dashboard helps operators to analyze key metrics and track daily schedules, whilst boosting segment market growth.

Based on Deployment Mode, the market is segmented into Web Based, Cloud Based and On Premise. Based on countries, the market is segmented into Brazil, Argentina, UAE, Saudi Arabia, South Africa, Nigeria, and Rest of LAMEA.
