Abstracts

The North America Cash Management System Market would witness market growth of 12.7% CAGR during the forecast period (2019-2025).

Growth of the market can be attributed to the rise of e-commerce and the expanded adoption of automated banking applications. It is expected that an increasing need for automated cloud-based banking solutions will further generate lucrative market growth opportunities. It is easy to incorporate the cloud-based cash management system with existing enterprise resource planning (ERP) systems that help banks handle money flow and payments through a network. It helps banks to scale money management systems by offering real-time access to the transactions to meet the demands of corporate clients.

The advanced money management systems deliver a connected experience to companies. Such systems help companies simplify and streamline an organization's financial processes, and provide business operations with extensibility and real-time integration. In addition, they allow organizations to leverage their working capital, which is expected to be a catalyst in market growth over the coming years. Money management systems can be used easily and have intuitive user interfaces which enable risk management and process integration points to be programmed. Such systems, combined with their intuitive user interfaces, allow users to access multiple channels. Given the availability of various advantages such as simplicity, lower operating risk, and effective predictability, these systems are widely accepted.

Based on Component, the market is segmented into Solution and Services. Based on Operation Type, the market is segmented into Balance & Transaction Processing, Cash Flow Forecasting, Corporate Liquidity Management, Payables & Receivables and Others. Based on Organization Size, the market is segmented into Large Enterprises and Small & Medium Enterprises. Based on Deployment Type, the market is segmented into On-premise and Cloud. Based on End User, the market is segmented into Banks, Retail, Non-Banking Financial Corporations and Others. Based on countries, the market is segmented into U.S., Mexico, Canada, and Rest of North America.
