Abstracts

The North America Food Flavors Market would witness market growth of 5.1% CAGR during the forecast period (2019-2025).

Consumers are increasingly using organic food products because of the growing consciousness of their health. Manufacturers, therefore, intend to create new and innovative formulations in the food products industry such as natural food Flavors obtained from exotic fruits. Moreover, market players have embraced new, advanced techniques for easy production and preservation of the initial Flavors, such as solid-liquid extraction (SLE) and supercritical carbon dioxide extraction. New Flavors and technology are driving the growth of the market in food products. In addition, the market in food Flavors is anticipated to offer profitable possibilities in the coming years, such as increased demand for processed foods & beverage with a rise in disposable income, increasing demand in multiple food applications and growing in the popularity of exotic Flavors.

Based on Type, the market is segmented into Natural Flavors and Artificial Flavors. Based on End Use, the market is segmented into Beverages, Dairy & Frozen Products, Bakery & Confectionery, Savory & Snacks and Animal & Pet Food.
