Abstracts

The North America Organic Baby Food Market would witness market growth of 9.6% CAGR during the forecast period (2017 – 2023). Various government initiatives to promote organic food and government and private initiatives in the organic baby food industry would offer numerous growth opportunities for the global organic baby food market. Growing number of working women and growing nuclear families have further led to the adoption of organic baby food products.

Organic baby food witnessed rapid adoption due to factors such as rise in parental concerns over baby's nutrition, growing awareness about the benefits of organic products, improved distribution channels, and eco-friendly farming techniques. These factors have contributed to the growth of the organic baby food products market.

Based on Modes of Sale, the market report segments the market into Offline and Online. Based on Product Types, the North America Organic Baby Food market segments the market into Prepared Organic Food, Dried Organic Food, Organic Infant Formula, and Others. Based on Countries, the North America Organic Baby Food market segments the market into US, Mexico, Canada, and Rest of North America.
