Abstracts

The North America Probiotic Drinks Market would witness market growth of 8.3% CAGR during the forecast period (2020-2026).

Probiotic Drinks are helpful in maintaining a healthy balance of intestinal bacteria and have many health benefits like weight loss, digestive health, and immune function. Consistent consumption of probiotics drinks enhances the bowel movement as well as improves nutrient absorption. Moreover, these drinks stimulate mental health as numerous studies have already proven that good mood and mental health are connected with gut health. Therefore, the product is also helpful in dropping anxiety, depression, autism, and obsessive-compulsive disorder (OCD). In addition to it, the products may also boost the functioning of the immune system as it promotes the production of natural antibodies in the body.

The rising awareness regarding the health benefits of the probiotics product has been driving its consumption among the consumers. According to a survey done by Kerry Group, in the U.S. approximately 75% of the consumers and more than 50% of consumers across the world are aware of the digestive benefits related to the product. The searches in Google for “microbiome” increased been increased by 267% in the past five years. Therefore, the Probiotic Drinks demand has increased with the rising health consciousness among consumers.

The Probiotic Drinks market is mainly driven by the growing number of consumers who are health-conscious, particularly the younger generation. The Probiotic Drinks is an example of functional beverages that are helpful in enhancing the health conditions of the intestine by keeping a good balance of the gut.
