Abstracts

China sugar market was estimated to be valued at US$20.546 billion in 2018 and is anticipated to witness high growth over the forecast period. China is one of the world's largest importers of sugar, which is going to have a positive impact on the sugar market, fueling its growth. Also, many people consume a lot of sweet dishes and desserts so the demand for sugar is more which will augment the market growth. Also the increasing foreign investments in the food industry of China will create a positive impact and bolster the market growth further. Although some people are shifting to artificial sweeteners or low-calorie sugar which can restrain the market.
