Abstracts

The Russian automotive safety airbag market is estimated to reach US$0.481 billion by 2024 from US$0.258 billion in 2018 growing at a CAGR of 10.97%. Russia is also one of the prominent automotive manufacturers in Europe and has witnessed a substantial increase in automotive production over recent years. This is estimated to promote the demand for automotive airbags in the country in the coming years. Furthermore, rising government initiatives to promote road safety is estimated to further strengthen this growth in the years to come. Moreover, concerns regarding airbag defects and faults have instigated a regular and prompt checking of these defects, thus positively impacting the airbags market in the country in the years to come.
