Abstracts

The present Competitive Intelligence Report about Influenza Vaccines provides a competitor evaluation in the field of marketed and novel prophylactic vaccines against seasonal and pandemic influenza viruses. Presentation of the vaccines is structured according to the manufacturing process: propagated in hens' eggs or in cell culture, recombinant protein based vaccines and DNA based vaccines. Product description considers use of adjuvants and preservatives. Vaccines with nasal delivery are highlighted. Purchase of the downloadable pdf report includes a 6-month online access to the data of the report and any updates since the publication date. Credentials to access the database will be sent by e-mail and allow online work with the project data to print or export an individual report.

The report includes a compilation of currently marketed vaccines and active projects in research and development for prophylaxis of seasonal and pandemic influenza disease. In addition, the report lists company-specific product portfolios and R&D pipelines of influenza vaccines on the market and in R&D. Competitor projects are listed in a tabular format providing information on:
