Abstracts

In this report, LP Information studies the present scenario (with the base year being 2017) and the growth prospects of global Credit Insurance market for 2018-2023. Trade credit insurance or credit insurance is an insurance policy and a risk management product offered by private insurance companies and governmental export credit agencies to business entities wishing to protect their accounts receivable from loss due to credit risks such as protracted default, insolvency or bankruptcy. Credit insurance product is a type of property and casualty insurance.

The Global Credit Insurance market is expected to witness expansion in the near future. The credit insurance market is a huge market with low penetration. This market has a huge yet unrealized potential. Regulatory and insolvency frameworks vary widely between different countries, and although there is generally an upward trend in corporate insolvencies, the differences in frameworks and in reporting standards make comparison difficult. These factors have contributed to an increased awareness of and focus on trade risks on credit.

Three major European groups – Euler Hermes, Atradius and Coface – dominate the market internationally, with a combined market share in 2016 of over 72%. Geographically, the global Credit Insurance has been segmented into Western Europe, Eastern Europe, North America, Latin America, Middle East & Africa and Asia-Pacific. The Europe held the largest share in the global Credit Insurance market, its revenue of global market exceeds 72% in 2016. The next position is America. China and India have being the most populous country has fast growing Credit Insurance market.

Over the next five years, LPI(LP Information) projects that Credit Insurance will register a 2.0% CAGR in terms of revenue, reach US$ 8560 million by 2023, from US$ 7750 million in 2017.
