Abstracts

The report requires updating with new data and is sent in 48 hours after order is placed.

In this report, LP Information studies the present scenario (with the base year being 2017) and the growth prospects of global Programmatic Advertising market for 2018-2023.

Programmatic advertising is a highly automated form of digital advertising. It involves buying and selling of online advertising inventory via a software or a machine. There are no human negotiations or manual insertions involved. It makes use of machine algorithms to buy ads online. It helps in automating the decision-making process of selecting the source of media and buying the media for advertising purpose as it helps in focusing on the target market.

Programmatic advertising is growing rapidly and will continue to grow during the forecast period. Due to increasing use of mobile phones, banner ads are decreasing and mobile videos are gaining traction. During the forecast period, mobile videos will witness rapid growth and will grow at highest CAGR.

Over the next five years, LPI(LP Information) projects that Programmatic Advertising will register a xx% CAGR in terms of revenue, reach US$ xx million by 2023, from US$ xx million in 2017.
