An art advisory service is a professional consultancy that offers expertise and guidance to individuals, corporations, or institutions in various aspects of the art market. These services are typically provided by knowledgeable art experts, art historians, curators, and other professionals with a deep understanding of the art world.

The primary role of an art advisory service is to assist clients in building, managing, and enhancing their art collections. This may involve advising clients on purchasing and selling artworks, navigating auctions and galleries, conducting research on artists and artworks, assessing the value and authenticity of pieces, and providing strategic guidance for long-term collection development.

Art advisory services can also offer assistance with art investment strategies, estate planning, exhibition planning, and art-related financial matters. Additionally, they may provide educational programs, lectures, and workshops to help clients deepen their understanding of art and the art market.

The global Art Advisory Service market size is projected to grow from US$ million in 2024 to US$ million in 2030; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of %from 2024 to 2030.
