According to our LPI (LP Information) latest study, the global Cattery market size was valued at US$ million in 2023. With growing demand in downstream market, the Cattery is forecast to a readjusted size of US$ million by 2030 with a CAGR of % during review period.
The research report highlights the growth potential of the global Cattery market. Cattery are expected to show stable growth in the future market. However, product differentiation, reducing costs, and supply chain optimization remain crucial for the widespread adoption of Cattery. Market players need to invest in research and development, forge strategic partnerships, and align their offerings with evolving consumer preferences to capitalize on the immense opportunities presented by the Cattery market.
A cattery is where cats are commercially housed. Catteries come in two varieties – boarding catteries and breeding catteries.
Pet medical care is the second largest segment in pet industry. In the UK, annual spending on veterinary and other pet services has risen from ?2.6bn in 2015 to ?4bn in 2021, a 54% increase in just six years. According to Vetnosis, the value of the global animal health industry will increase by 12% to $38.3 billion in 2021. White Paper on China's Pet Healthy Consumption of JD shows that in 2023, there are 13.09 million pets entering middle age and old age. And pet aging is expected to be seen in the next few years. Changes in the age structure of pets will further bring about the development of the pet medical industry. According to the data of the 2022 China Pet Medical Industry White Paper, from the perspective of market size, the scale of China's pet medical market is about ?67.5 billion, accounting for about 22.5% of the entire pet industry. From the perspective of hospital operation time, pet hospitals within 5 years accounted
