The report requires updating with new data and is sent in 48 hours after order is placed.

Consent management platforms help companies obtain and manage user consent when collecting, sharing, buying, or selling a user's data online. User consent is required by privacy regulations (GDPR, CCPA, etc.) when collecting user data, whether that be from cookies, other website trackers such as plugins, or integrated content like videos. Consent management platforms collect, track, manage, update, and provide proof that a company has received a user's granular consent to specific data collection. Consent management platforms are used by marketing, privacy, and IT teams within a business to meet compliance regulations.

The global Consent Management Platform (CMP) market size is projected to grow from US$ 310.1 million in 2023 to US$ 747 million in 2030; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of 13.4% from 2024 to 2030.

Some of the future market trends of Consent Management Platform are:

Increasing demand for flexible consent policies: As the workforce becomes more diverse and mobile, employees expect more flexibility and choice in their consent benefits. Employers are also looking for ways to optimize their consent spending and offer personalized solutions to their employees. Therefore, flexible consent policies that combine core benefits with lump sum or managed budget options are becoming more popular among both employers and employees.

Growing adoption of technology-based solutions: Technology plays a key role in enhancing the efficiency, transparency, and quality of the consent management process. Consent Management Platform providers are leveraging cloud-based platforms, artificial intelligence, data analytics, mobile applications, virtual reality, blockchain, etc., to offer innovative solutions that can streamline policy creation, benefits administration, expense management, communication, reporting, etc., as well as improve the user experience by providing access to information, resources, tools, etc., anytime anywhere.

Rising importance of user well-being: Consent management can be a stressful process that can affect the physical, mental, emotional, social, cultural, etc., well-being of the users and their families. Therefore, Consent Management Platform providers are focusing more on providing holistic support that addresses not only the practical aspects but also the human aspects of the consent management process. This includes offering intercultural training, language training, coaching, counseling, mentoring, spousal support, family support, etc., to help the users adjust to the new environment and cope with the challenges and opportunities of consent management.
