Abstracts

The global Cookie and Cracker market size is predicted to grow from US$ million in 2025 to US$ million in 2031; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of %from 2025 to 2031.

The impact of the latest U.S. tariff measures and the corresponding policy responses from countries worldwide on market competitiveness, regional economic performance, and supply chain configurations will be comprehensively evaluated in this report.

Cookies and crackers are sweet baked goods which are characterized by a high fat and sugarcontent.

Europe is one of the world's largest producers and exporters of biscuits and bakery products, and its market is growing significantly. According to the Ministry of Economy, countries such as the UK, Germany, Italy, Belgium and France are the main exporters of biscuits and sweet biscuits. Moreover, the rising popularity of baked goods and savory biscuits in the region is expected to positively impact the growth of the regional market. Asia Pacific is likely to exhibit the fastest market growth owing to changing consumer preferences, rapid urbanization, and growing prevalence of Western eating habits. India, China, and Australia are the most promising markets in the region due to their growing population, stable economy, and rising disposable income. Increasing consumer demand for healthy and convenient snacks owing to active lifestyles is expected to further drive the growth of the regional market.
