A double-sided weighted blanket is a type of blanket that has weights evenly distributed within it and features two distinct sides with different materials, textures, or designs. One side may offer a soft and cozy fabric like fleece for warmth and comfort during colder months or for those seeking a more snug feeling. The other side could be made of a cooler, more breathable material such as cotton or a special fabric that provides a refreshing touch, suitable for warmer seasons or for individuals who tend to get hot easily while sleeping. The weighted aspect provides a gentle pressure that is believed to have a calming and relaxing effect on the body, helping to promote better sleep and a sense of security.
