According to our LPI (LP Information) latest study, the global Duty-Free and Travel Retail market size was valued at US$ million in 2023. With growing demand in downstream market, the Duty-Free and Travel Retail is forecast to a readjusted size of US$ million by 2030 with a CAGR of % during review period.

The research report highlights the growth potential of the global Duty-Free and Travel Retail market. Duty-Free and Travel Retail are expected to show stable growth in the future market. However, product differentiation, reducing costs, and supply chain optimization remain crucial for the widespread adoption of Duty-Free and Travel Retail. Market players need to invest in research and development, forge strategic partnerships, and align their offerings with evolving consumer preferences to capitalize on the immense opportunities presented by the Duty-Free and Travel Retail market.

Duty-free shops (or stores) are retail outlets that are exempt from the payment of certain local or national taxes and duties, on the requirement that the goods sold will be sold to travelers who will take them out of the country. Which products can be sold duty-free vary by jurisdiction, as well as how they can be sold, and the process of calculating the duty or refunding the duty component.

In 2022, the gradual relaxation of epidemic prevention and control measures around the world will have a positive impact on the rapid recovery of the tourism industry. According to data from the World Tourism Organization, the number of global travelers exceeded 900 million in 2022, a two-fold increase compared to 2021. In 2022, international tourism revenue returned to the US$ 1 trillion, a real increase of 50% compared with 2021. According to data from the Ministry of Culture and Tourism of China, in 2022, the total number of domestic tourists was ? 2.53 billion, and the domestic tourism revenue (total tourism consumption) was ? 2 trillion.
