Abstracts

The global Educational Management Service Platform market size is predicted to grow from US$ 2290 million in 2025 to US$ 5163 million in 2032; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of 12.6% from 2026 to 2032.

The educational administration service platform is an information technology and internet-based education management system used by universities, primary and secondary schools, and training institutions to manage the entire process, including course scheduling, class scheduling, student selection, performance management, teacher management, attendance statistics, teaching evaluation, and report analysis. Its downstream customers primarily target public and private schools, vocational education institutions, online education platforms, and training organizations, helping educational institutions improve educational administration efficiency, optimize resource allocation, and enhance teaching quality. Because the platform primarily relies on software services and system maintenance, hardware investment is relatively low, resulting in a generally high overall gross profit margin of 61%.

United States market for Educational Management Service Platform is estimated to increase from US$ million in 2025 to US$ million by 2032, at a CAGR of % from 2026 through 2032.

China market for Educational Management Service Platform is estimated to increase from US$ million in 2025 to US$ million by 2032, at a CAGR of % from 2026 through 2032.
