The global Enterprise Operations Management Consulting Services market size is predicted to grow from US$ 29221 million in 2025 to US$ 40343 million in 2032; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of 4.7% from 2026 to 2032.

Operations management consulting services refer to the provision of systematic and customized support by professional consulting firms or advisory teams to enterprises, aimed at optimizing internal operational processes, enhancing resource utilization efficiency, strengthening organizational execution capabilities, and achieving strategic objectives.

The demand for enterprise operations management consulting services continues to grow, driven primarily by enterprises' urgent pursuit of cost reduction, efficiency gains, process optimization, and organizational agility within a complex and volatile market environment. Amidst accelerating digital transformation, intensifying competition, and rising uncertainties in global supply chains, many companies face challenges such as operational inefficiencies, suboptimal resource allocation, and poor cross-departmental collaboration. Consequently, they urgently require the assistance of external professional consultants to introduce advanced management methodologies, industry best practices, and data-driven diagnostic tools?thereby enabling them to reshape business processes, enhance execution capabilities, and facilitate the successful implementation of strategic initiatives.
