The global Factoring Services market size is predicted to grow from US$ million in 2025 to US$ million in 2032; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of % from 2026 to 2032.

Factoring services involve a financial arrangement where a business sells its accounts receivable (invoices) to a third party, known as a factor, at a discount. This provides the business with immediate cash flow, improving liquidity and allowing for smoother operations. The factor assumes the responsibility of collecting the receivables and may also manage the credit control and debtor management processes. Factoring can be beneficial for companies that need quick access to funds without waiting for the usual credit terms of 30 to 90 days. It helps businesses to maintain steady cash flow, invest in growth opportunities, and handle operating expenses more efficiently.

United States market for Factoring Services is estimated to increase from US$ million in 2025 to US$ million by 2032, at a CAGR of % from 2026 through 2032.

China market for Factoring Services is estimated to increase from US$ million in 2025 to US$ million by 2032, at a CAGR of % from 2026 through 2032.
