The global Home Decontamination Services market size is predicted to grow from US$ 2613 million in 2025 to US$ 3375 million in 2031; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of 4.4% from 2025 to 2031.

Home decontamination services refer to professional cleaning and disinfection services designed to eliminate or reduce contaminants, pathogens, allergens, and pollutants from residential environments. These services are often sought after in situations where there is a concern about the presence of harmful substances, infectious agents, or allergens that could compromise the health and safety of occupants.

The COVID-19 pandemic heightened awareness of the importance of disinfection. The demand for home decontamination services surged as individuals and businesses sought professional assistance in creating safer and cleaner environments.
