The global Home Decoration Consulting Services market size is predicted to grow from US$ 244876 million in 2025 to US$ 352402 million in 2032; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of 5.4% from 2026 to 2032.

Home decoration consulting services provide consumers with comprehensive services including professional residential decoration design, planning, construction, and post-construction maintenance. It includes providing personalized design solutions based on client needs, budget, and space characteristics, and assisting clients in selecting decoration materials, color schemes, and furniture arrangement. Home decoration consulting not only involves interior design but also includes supervision and management of the construction process to ensure the smooth progress of the project. Furthermore, with technological advancements, home decoration consulting is gradually incorporating modern elements such as smart home technology and environmentally friendly materials to meet consumers' comprehensive needs for quality, comfort, and aesthetics.

With the advancement of urbanization and the improvement of consumers' living standards, the demand in the home decoration industry continues to grow, and home decoration consulting services are constantly expanding. From traditional design and construction to today's emerging demands such as smart homes and green decoration, home decoration consulting services are showing a diversified development trend. In the future, the industry will place greater emphasis on personalized customization, environmentally friendly decoration, and the application of intelligent technologies. The home decoration consulting service market is expected to continue to grow, becoming an important part of people's efforts to improve their quality of life. At the same time, the application of online platforms and digital tools also provides new growth opportunities for home decoration consulting services.
