According to our LPI (LP Information) latest study, the global Language Services market size was valued at US$ 72800 million in 2023. With growing demand in downstream market, the Language Services is forecast to a readjusted size of US$ 109660 million by 2030 with a CAGR of 6.0% during review period.

The research report highlights the growth potential of the global Language Services market. Language Services are expected to show stable growth in the future market. However, product differentiation, reducing costs, and supply chain optimization remain crucial for the widespread adoption of Language Services. Market players need to invest in research and development, forge strategic partnerships, and align their offerings with evolving consumer preferences to capitalize on the immense opportunities presented by the Language Services market.

The language industry is the sector of activity dedicated to facilitating multilingual communication, both oral and written. According to the European Commission's Directorate-General of Translation, the language industry comprises the activities of translation, interpreting, subtitling and dubbing, software and website globalisation, language technology tools development, international conference organisation, language teaching and linguistic consultancy.

Modern language industry has developed rapidly following availability of the internet. Achievements of the industry include the ability to quickly translate long texts into many languages. This has created new challenges as compared with the traditional activity of translators, such as that of quality assurance.
