However, product differentiation, reducing costs, and supply chain optimization remain crucial for the widespread adoption of Leisure Braised Products. Market players need to invest in research and development, forge strategic partnerships, and align their offerings with evolving consumer preferences to capitalize on the immense opportunities presented by the Leisure Braised Products market.

Leisure braised products are made with duck, chicken, pig, beef, vegetables, aquatic products, soy products, etc. as the main raw materials, adding ginger, garlic, salt, vinegar, pepper and other seasonings and spices, and boiled with water. food. Leisure braised products have the characteristics of 'color, aroma, taste and shape', with diverse flavors and rich flavor.

Braised food has a long history in Chinese food civilization and has a stable consumption base. In recent years, the consumption scale of this category has grown rapidly.

With the changes of the times, the consumption of braised products has gradually expanded from dining tables to leisure occasions, and the consumption of casual braised products has a good momentum of development. Relevant data predicts that leisure braised products will continue to increase at an annual growth rate of +13% in the next five years, and the market size will exceed 220 billion yuan by 2025.

The rapid development of the braised food industry benefits from changes in both supply and demand.

From the supply side, although the market size of casual braised food has maintained a double-digit compound growth rate every year, brand concentration is not high and the industry structure is relatively fragmented.

In terms of marketing channels, offline is still the main channel for the consumption of braised products, accounting for 63% of the channel distribution. The offline stores of the head braised food brand are all over the country, providing braised food lovers with unique fireworks in the market. The rapid development of e-commerce has further accelerated the scale expansion of online channels for braised products.
