The report requires updating with new data and is sent in 48 hours after order is placed.

The global Long-stay Travel Insurance market size is projected to grow from US$ million in 2022 to US$ million in 2029; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of % from 2023 to 2029.

There has been a growing trend of individuals and families embarking on long-term travel adventures, whether for work, study, or leisure. This has led to an increased demand for travel insurance policies that provide coverage for extended periods, ranging from a few months to a year or more. Given the longer duration of travel, there is an emphasis on comprehensive medical coverage in long-stay travel insurance policies. This includes coverage for emergency medical expenses, hospitalization, medical evacuation, and repatriation. Insurers are increasingly offering higher coverage limits and extended benefits for medical emergencies. Long-stay travelers often engage in adventurous activities and sports during their trips. Insurers are offering coverage for a wide range of adventure activities, such as scuba diving, hiking, skiing, and more. These specialized coverage options address the specific risks associated with these activities.
