The research report highlights the growth potential of the global Luxury Cruise Tourism market. Luxury Cruise Tourism are expected to show stable growth in the future market. However, product differentiation, reducing costs, and supply chain optimization remain crucial for the widespread adoption of Luxury Cruise Tourism. Market players need to invest in research and development, forge strategic partnerships, and align their offerings with evolving consumer preferences to capitalize on the immense opportunities presented by the Luxury Cruise Tourism market.

Cruise travel is booming with luxury travellers increasingly choosing to spend their holiday on-board ultra-luxury cruise liners. The cruise industry has been growing y-o-y since 2007, and according to Royal Caribbean Cruises CEO Richard Fain, the ultra-luxury and expedition segments are growing at twice the rate of any other segment in the industry. Luxury travel today is defined less by thread count and Michelin stars and more by access to the people, places and experiences that represent all that is authentic about a destination. There's no denying that comfort factors still apply and high standards of accommodation and dining will always feature on the luxury traveller's wish list. However, today's luxury traveller seeks more depth of understanding and immersion into local culture than ever before. People don't just want to see – they want to participate. The sales process is also critical and whilst the online proposition can be an asset in terms of booking more simple arrangements, clients looking for luxury experiential travel require a deep level of sophisticated knowledge and confidence during the sales process.

For this report, we undertook primary and secondary research in association with Tourism Economics, Amadeus Travel Intelligence, Connections Events, The Telegraph and various industry experts. Approaches include: analysing tourism Economics estimations of the number of outbound luxury trips from each region between 2012 and the present (using an arrival definition), and projected growth patterns until 2022. To compare the growth in overall travel with the growth in luxury travel, luxury travellers were defined as those with an annual household income of more than $350,000, and bookings arrivals order costs more than $3000 per person made by these traveller were deemed as luxury trips.

In 2022, the gradual relaxation of epidemic prevention and control measures around the world will have a positive impact on the rapid recovery of the tourism industry. According to data from the World Tourism Organization, the number of global travelers exceeded 900 million in 2022, a two-fold increase compared to 2021. In 2022, international tourism revenue returned to the US$ 1 trillion, a real increase of 50% compared with 2021. According to data from the Ministry of Culture and Tourism of China, in 2022, the total number of domestic tourists was ? 2.53 billion, and the domestic tourism revenue (total tourism consumption) was ? 2 trillion.
