According to our LPI (LP Information) latest study, the global Luxury Travel market size was valued at US$ 21720 million in 2023. With growing demand in downstream market, the Luxury Travel is forecast to a readjusted size of US$ 38980 million by 2030 with a CAGR of 8.7% during review period.

The research report highlights the growth potential of the global Luxury Travel market. Luxury Travel are expected to show stable growth in the future market. However, product differentiation, reducing costs, and supply chain optimization remain crucial for the widespread adoption of Luxury Travel. Market players need to invest in research and development, forge strategic partnerships, and align their offerings with evolving consumer preferences to capitalize on the immense opportunities presented by the Luxury Travel market.

Luxury travel today is defined less by thread count and Michelin stars and more by access to the people, places and experiences that represent all that is authentic about a destination. There's no denying that comfort factors still apply and high standards of accommodation and dining will always feature on the luxury traveller's wish list. However, today's luxury traveller seeks more depth of understanding and immersion into local culture than ever before. People don't just want to see – they want to participate. The sales process is also critical and whilst the online proposition can be an asset in terms of booking more simple arrangements, clients looking for luxury experiential travel require a deep level of sophisticated knowledge and confidence during the sales process.

Asia-Pacific is the largest Luxury Travel market with about 33% market share. Europe is follower, accounting for about 30% market share. The key manufacturers are TUI Group, Thomas Cook Group, Jet2 Holidays, Cox & Kings Ltd, Lindblad Expeditions, Travcoa, Scott Dunn, Abercrombie & Kent Ltd, Micato Safaris, Tauck, Al Tayyar, Backroads, Zicasso, Exodus Travels, Butterfield & Robinson etc. Top 5 companies occupied about 14% market share.
