Abstracts

The global Managed Procurement Services market size is predicted to grow from US$ million in 2025 to US$ million in 2032; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of %from 2026 to 2032.

Managed procurement service is a service model that entrusts procurement business to a professional third-party organization for comprehensive management. Managed procurement service providers usually have a professional procurement team with rich procurement experience and expertise. These professionals are familiar with the market conditions, supplier conditions and procurement processes of various materials, and can provide professional procurement suggestions and solutions to the client. For small and medium-sized enterprises, due to the small scale of procurement and limited procurement resources, it is often difficult to obtain preferential prices and high-quality services. Managed procurement services can help small and medium-sized enterprises integrate procurement needs, obtain economies of scale through centralized procurement and other methods, and reduce procurement costs. At the same time, professional procurement teams can provide professional procurement suggestions and solutions for small and medium-sized enterprises to improve procurement efficiency and quality.

United States market for Managed Procurement Services is estimated to increase from US$ million in 2025 to US$ million by 2032, at a CAGR of % from 2026 through 2032.

China market for Managed Procurement Services is estimated to increase from US$ million in 2025 to US$ million by 2032, at a CAGR of % from 2026 through 2032.

Europe market for Managed Procurement Services is estimated to increase from US$
