The global Microfinance Service market size is predicted to grow from US$ 2884 million in 2025 to US$ 5273 million in 2031; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of 10.6% from 2025 to 2031.

Microfinance services refer to small, short-term loan services provided to low-income groups, entrepreneurs or small and micro enterprises, usually to meet their basic funding needs or start-up capital. Such loans are small in amount, simple in application procedures and short in approval cycle, with the aim of helping those groups that are difficult to cover by the traditional financial system to obtain financing support. Microfinance usually adopts flexible repayment methods and may not require traditional guarantees or collateral. It uses data analysis and other technologies to assess the credit risk of borrowers and promote inclusive development of the social economy.

United States market for Microfinance Service is estimated to increase from US$ million in 2024 to US$ million by 2031, at a CAGR of % from 2025 through 2031.
