The research report highlights the growth potential of the global Nature Tourism market. Nature Tourism are expected to show stable growth in the future market. However, product differentiation, reducing costs, and supply chain optimization remain crucial for the widespread adoption of Nature Tourism. Market players need to invest in research and development, forge strategic partnerships, and align their offerings with evolving consumer preferences to capitalize on the immense opportunities presented by the Nature Tourism market.

Nature tourism defined as travel to enable the enjoyment of undeveloped natural areas. Examples include birdwatching, photography, stargazing, camping, hiking, hunting, fishing, and visiting parks. Nature based tourism plays an important role in sustainable development, and can support economic growth, biodiversity conservation and poverty alleviation. Nature-based tourism can be a significant source of income for local communities and rural households, who often live in marginal areas with few pathways out of poverty.

In 2022, the gradual relaxation of epidemic prevention and control measures around the world will have a positive impact on the rapid recovery of the tourism industry. According to data from the World Tourism Organization, the number of global travelers exceeded 900 million in 2022, a two-fold increase compared to 2021. In 2022, international tourism revenue returned to the US$ 1 trillion, a real increase of 50% compared with 2021. According to data from the Ministry of Culture and Tourism of China, in 2022, the total number of domestic tourists was ? 2.53 billion, and the domestic tourism revenue (total tourism consumption) was ? 2 trillion.
