Abstracts

The global Non-Performing Asset Full-Process Governance Platform market size is predicted to grow from US$ 3306 million in 2025 to US$ 6067 million in 2032; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of 9.2% from 2026 to 2032.

The NPL full-process governance platform leverages digital technologies such as big data, artificial intelligence, and blockchain to provide an integrated, online, intelligent, and compliant solution across all stages of NPL discovery, assessment, pricing, disposal, trading, and collection. This platform aims to improve NPL management efficiency, reduce risks and costs, and help financial institutions, asset management companies, and related entities maximize asset value and manage risk. The platform's downstream customers primarily include various financial institutions and asset investment entities, including commercial banks, policy banks, trusts, financial leasing companies, insurance companies, guarantee agencies, securities companies, and local and national asset management companies (AMCs). These entities rely on the platform to improve the efficiency and compliance of NPL discovery, assessment, trading, and disposal. Furthermore, the platform also encompasses NPL-focused funds, private equity firms, and some highly indebted real estate and manufacturing enterprises. These entities use the platform to transfer debt, revitalize assets, and mitigate risks, thereby maximizing capital recovery and asset value. The NPL full-process governance platform has a gross profit margin of 53%.
