The global Pet Personal Hygiene market size is predicted to grow from US$ 2039 million in 2025 to US$ 3526 million in 2032; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of 8.3% from 2026 to 2032.

Pet personal hygiene refers to the practices and products used to maintain the cleanliness and health of pets, including grooming, bathing, dental care, and sanitation.

The Pet Personal Hygiene market is experiencing significant growth driven by several key factors reflecting the increasing emphasis on pet health and wellness. As pet ownership rates rise globally and owners increasingly view their pets as integral members of the family, there is a growing demand for personal hygiene products tailored specifically for pets. Products such as pet shampoos, dental care solutions, grooming tools, and ear and eye cleaners address various aspects of pet hygiene, promoting cleanliness, comfort, and overall well-being. Moreover, as consumers become more aware of the importance of preventive care and hygiene in maintaining their pets' health, the demand for specialized pet hygiene products continues to increase. Additionally, advancements in formulation technology and the introduction of natural and eco-friendly ingredients further drive market growth, catering to the preferences of environmentally conscious pet owners. With the ongoing trend towards humanization of pets and the increasing focus on pet health and wellness, the Pet Personal Hygiene market is poised for sustained expansion, offering a wide range of innovative products to meet the evolving needs of pet owners worldwide.
