With the various bonus advantages of pre-prepared dishes, fertile soil has been laid for the rapid development of pre-prepared baking. Tmall's sales data in the past three years show that pre-prepared baking has experienced explosive growth, among which the growth rate of pre-prepared baking is 3.6 times that of baking raw materials and 6.8 times that of finished baking. From the category point of view, baked goods can be divided into two categories: freshly made baking and pre-packaged baking.
