The global Procurement Agency Services market size is predicted to grow from US$ million in 2025 to US$ million in 2032; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of %from 2026 to 2032.

Procurement agency service refers to the service provided by an agency or individual with certain qualifications who is entrusted by an organization to help the client conduct relevant procurement business. Communicate with the client to understand its procurement needs, including the specifications, quantity, quality requirements, budget, etc. of the required items or services, and assist the client in clarifying the procurement goals. Use its own resources and channels to find potential suppliers and conduct preliminary screening. This includes evaluating the supplier's qualifications, reputation, product quality, price, delivery time, etc., and determining a list of suppliers that meet the requirements. Through centralized procurement, bulk procurement, etc., procurement agencies can obtain more favorable prices and conditions and reduce procurement costs. At the same time, the client can also save manpower, material resources and time costs and focus on core business.

United States market for Procurement Agency Services is estimated to increase from US$ million in 2025 to US$ million by 2032, at a CAGR of % from 2026 through 2032.

China market for Procurement Agency Services is estimated to increase from US$ million in 2025 to US$ million by 2032, at a CAGR of % from 2026 through 2032.
