Pullulan capsules are highly stable, have superior barrier properties, and are resistant to humidity and humidity. They also dissolve quickly, making them an excellent choice for time-sensitive medications. Due to the growth of the global pharmaceutical and nutraceutical industry, the demand of pullulan vegetarian capsules market is also growing. Increasing need for cost-effective and high-quality capsules to deliver drugs and dietary supplements is driving the demand for pullulan capsules. Furthermore, worldwide regulations on the use of capsules of animal origin are becoming stricter.
