Abstracts

The global Referee Cards market size is predicted to grow from US$ million in 2025 to US$ million in 2031; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of % from 2025 to 2031.

Referee cards are used in many sports as a means of warning, reprimanding or penalising a player, coach or team official. Referee cards are most commonly used by referees or umpires to indicate that a player has committed an offence. The official will hold the card above their head while looking or pointing towards the player that has committed the offence. The referee notes the offender's details, time, and the nature of the foul committed in a small notebook which is also called a booking.
