Roll-on essential oils and roll-on medicated oils are topical products with a roller design. Roll-on essential oils are extracts from natural plants through steam distillation and other methods. They are combined with a roller design to facilitate direct application to the skin. They are mainly used for skin care, soothing emotions, improving sleep quality, and relieving muscle soreness. Roll-on medicated oils focus more on medicinal effects. They contain a variety of chinese herbal or chemical ingredients and are convenient to use in the form of rollers. They are mainly used to treat or relieve symptoms of various diseases, such as headaches, dizziness, and motion sickness caused by mosquito bites and colds. Roll-on essential oils and roll-on medicated oils are widely used in home care boxes and commercial places and the use is to apply them to the affected area or specific location through a roller.
