Abstracts

The global Second-Hand Watch market size is predicted to grow from US$ 23890 million in 2025 to US$ 31160 million in 2032; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of 3.9% from 2026 to 2032.

Second-Hand Watches are often less expensive than new and have the benefits of being sustainable and environmentally friendly.

As people's lifestyles change, online communication and online transactions become increasingly active. Many watch brands cooperate with fashion and other platforms through acquisitions, capital investments, etc. to seize market opportunities. However, as the second-hand watch market becomes increasingly mature and large sales platforms or retailers begin to flourish, it is expected that some market control measures will be introduced. Control the reform behavior of unscrupulous merchants to protect the rights and interests of consumers.
