Abstracts

The global Self-Publishing Book & Ebook market size is predicted to grow from US$ 946 million in 2025 to US$ 1418 million in 2032; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of 6.1% from 2026 to 2032.

Self-publishing books and ebooks refer to works published independently by authors without relying on traditional publishing houses. Through online platforms such as Amazon KDP, IngramSpark, and Lulu, authors manage the entire process from content creation and design to distribution and sales. They retain full copyright and royalties while offering printed and digital formats to reach global readers with greater flexibility.The upstream segment includes content creators, editors, layout and design service providers, digital publishing technology firms, and printing suppliers. The midstream is composed of self-publishing platforms and distribution channels such as Amazon, Apple Books, and Barnes & Noble Press. The downstream encompasses independent authors, educational institutions, corporate publishers, and end-readers. The industry relies on digitalization and print-on-demand technologies to build a cost-efficient and flexible publishing ecosystem.

United States market for Self-Publishing Book & Ebook is estimated to increase from US$ million in 2025 to US$ million by 2032, at a CAGR of % from 2026 through 2032.
