The global SPAC Consulting Service market size is predicted to grow from US$ 1319 million in 2025 to US$ 1793 million in 2032; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of 4.6% from 2026 to 2032.

SPAC Consulting Service refers to the full range of support provided by professional institutions to special purpose acquisition companies (SPACs) and their target companies, covering all stages from establishment, listing, mergers and acquisitions to post-merger management. These services are designed to ensure the smooth progress of SPAC transactions and help companies enter the capital market efficiently.

SPAC (Special Purpose Acquisition Company) Consulting Service is an emerging professional service segment that has developed alongside the rapid growth of SPAC transactions in global capital markets. These services primarily focus on guiding companies, sponsors, and investors through the complex processes associated with SPAC formations, mergers, acquisitions, and regulatory compliance. SPAC consulting firms typically provide expertise in financial structuring, due diligence, valuation, deal negotiation, and post-merger integration, while also offering strategic advice on market positioning and investor relations. With SPACs serving as an alternative route to public markets, demand for specialized advisory support has increased significantly, particularly among firms seeking faster access to capital and international expansion. The market for SPAC Consulting Service is characterized by the involvement of investment banks, accounting firms, law firms, and boutique advisory groups, each offering tailored solutions to meet the diverse needs of clients. As regulatory scrutiny intensifies and market dynamics evolve, the sector continues to expand, emphasizing the importance of transparency, governance, and risk management.
