Abstracts

The global Spirits Packaging market size is predicted to grow from US$ million in 2025 to US$ million in 2031; it is expected to grow at a CAGR of %from 2025 to 2031.

The impact of the latest U.S. tariff measures and the corresponding policy responses from countries worldwide on market competitiveness, regional economic performance, and supply chain configurations will be comprehensively evaluated in this report.

Flexible spirits packaging brings the spirits to market in new ways, extending secondary shelf life and keeping the product fresh from fill to final dispensing. The bag-in-box and pouch products are perfect for use in dispensing systems or for retail packaging and are designed to reduce package and product waste.

The spirits market has seen a trend toward premiumization, where consumers are willing to pay more for high-quality and unique spirits. This trend has influenced packaging, with brands investing in premium bottle designs, custom closures, and luxury packaging.
