The research report highlights the growth potential of the global Sustainable Travel market. Sustainable Travel are expected to show stable growth in the future market. However, product differentiation, reducing costs, and supply chain optimization remain crucial for the widespread adoption of Sustainable Travel. Market players need to invest in research and development, forge strategic partnerships, and align their offerings with evolving consumer preferences to capitalize on the immense opportunities presented by the Sustainable Travel market.

Sustainable Travel is a form of tourism involving visiting fragile, pristine, and relatively undisturbed natural areas, intended as a low-impact and often small-scale alternative to standard commercial mass tourism

In 2022, the gradual relaxation of epidemic prevention and control measures around the world will have a positive impact on the rapid recovery of the tourism industry. According to data from the World Tourism Organization, the number of global travelers exceeded 900 million in 2022, a two-fold increase compared to 2021. In 2022, international tourism revenue returned to the US$ 1 trillion, a real increase of 50% compared with 2021. According to data from the Ministry of Culture and Tourism of China, in 2022, the total number of domestic tourists was ? 2.53 billion, and the domestic tourism revenue (total tourism consumption) was ? 2 trillion.
